JAMES T. "JIM" TAGUE
14324 Shoredale Lane • Dallas, Texas 75234 • Phone 241-0893

March 20, 1978

Dear Harold,

It was so good to talk with you last week! Hope you are still feeling well. We are all fine. Jim, of course, is still working too hard and too many hours. But, that's Jim.

Hope these clips are of some interest to you. I know some of them aren't of so much literary interest, like Larry Flynt's schemes, but I thought you might like to see them, anyway. Also, I am very sorry to take so long in getting them to you. I am a rotten correspondent, as you can see. But I promise to do better!

Jim has finished reading Epstein's book. He has found many errors. I told him what you'd told me it, and he has a lot of questions he'd like to ask you, I'm sure. I don't think he's talked to anyone else, except Penn Jones, a couple of times.

Our weather, for a change, has been absolutely lovely. The trees are budding, the grass is turning green, and our temperatures are in high 70's. It's a bit windy, but this is March, after all!

We have really enjoyed the Chicken recipes.

My mother has tried to steal them, of course, but so far hasn't succeeded. Thank you again for sending them to us.

Take care of yourself, and let us hear from you, soon!

Best regards,

Jim + Judy